

CJ Pask Dinner
Fine wines from New Zealand
An evening with Kate Radburnd
Thursday 11th November 2010

Chris Pask was the first to establish Cabernet Sauvignon vineyards in the Gimblett Road area of Hawke's Bay in 1981, some of New Zealand's oldest and best vines for producing premium quality red wines. Kate Radburnd joined C.J.Pask in 1991. Kate has won many medals, awards and trophies including the Champion Trophy at the Air New Zealand Awards and the Bordeaux and Cabernet Merlot Trophy at the London International Wine Challenge. Kate is one of the country's most experienced and talented winemakers and is highly regarded throughout the wine world.
